Customer & Community Engagement

Blackpool South Shore branch

Change of opening hours on 5th June 2017.

How banking is changing

Our branches are changing from places where customers carry out basic transactions to places where customers interact with our staff on big life decisions. For example buying a home or starting up a business.

This document is designed to outline the rationale behind the decision to change the opening hours of the Royal Bank Of Scotland Blackpool South Shore branch, help you to identify how you can continue to bank in the local community and also details the measures which have been taken to engage with our customers and the local community.

If you would like to discuss the alternative ways to bank in the local community or if you have any further questions regarding the changes to opening hours, please ask a member of the branch team or contact Lucinda Simpson on 07721 233 560 (Minicom 0800 068 1289) or email LUCINDA.SIMPSON@rbs.co.uk

We also understand that not everyone wants to use online services and prefer face to face banking. Our branch network will remain the cornerstone of our services to customers.

Customer Themes

- ❑ Most people have said that the reason they're unhappy about the decision to change the hours of the branch is that they will have to travel further to do their banking or the or the new opening hours are not convenient to them
 - ❑ Many people were concerned as they don't understand the services we offer at the Post Office.

We have undertaken the following activities in response to the key areas of concern:

- ❑ Our local team have contacted customers to discuss their individual circumstances and banking requirements, and have offered help and support with the most suitable ways to bank in the local area.
- ❑ The branch teams have spoken to all customers who have been concerned to explain more about our alternative banking services which are available at the Post Office.

Following our community engagement and impact assessment, we are confident that we have appropriate services in place to ensure our customers have sufficient access to banking locally.

Royal Bank of Scotland South Shore branch will therefore change their opening hours as planned on 5th June 2017. Our branch staff and Lucinda Simpson our local Bank Manager are available to answer any further questions that our customers or the community may have.
