- 21.2.3 any Loss suffered by members of the Bank Group (other than the Buyer) will not be treated as being indirect or consequential in terms of Clause 18.1 simply because it has been suffered by members of the Bank Group and not by the Buyer directly.
- 21.3 Notwithstanding the foregoing, each member of the Bank Group will be entitled to recover such Loss directly from the Supplier and to enforce this Agreement against the Supplier for this purpose but only if and to the extent that the Bank is unable to do. This is a third party clause as meant in article 6:253 of the Civil Code (Burgerlijk Wetboek).
- 21.4 The Buyer will be able to recover any Loss from the Supplier subject to any limits on the Supplier's liability contained in the Agreement.
- 21.5 The limitations of liability in the Agreement will apply to the Bank Group as a whole so that they apply to all liabilities incurred under or in connection with the Agreement
- 21.5.1 by the Supplier to the Bank Group in aggregate; and
- 21.5.2 by the Bank Group in aggregate to the Supplier.
- 21.6 The Buyer and the Supplier may withdraw from or vary the Agreement or terminate it in accordance with its terms without the agreement of any other member of the Bank Group.
- 21.7 The Supplier acknowledges that the provisions of this Clause 21 have been notified to the other members of the Bank Group.

22 Inspection and Information

- 22.1 Subject to giving the Supplier not less than seven days prior notice, the Buyer or its agents shall be entitled to inspect and observe the Supplier's procedures relating to the Deliverables and work being performed by the Supplier in relation to the Deliverables. Such inspection and observation shall occur during normal working hours and during other hours that are reasonable under the circumstances. The Buyer shall conduct such inspections so as to avoid any undue disruption to the Supplier's operations. Following any such visit the Supplier shall give due consideration to such recommendations as the Buyer may reasonably make.
- 22.2 The Supplier will promptly provide the Buyer with any information which the Buyer reasonably requests relating to the Deliverables including any information which the Buyer may require to enable it to comply with any legislative or regulatory requirement.
- 22.3 The Supplier shall not, directly or indirectly, reward or offer to reward any employee or agent of the Buyer or the Bank Group for the Buyer entering into the Agreement or doing or refraining from doing anything in connection with the Agreement. If requested, the Supplier will promptly provide the Buyer's representatives with access to the Supplier's records to verify that the Supplier has complied with this undertaking.

23 Change Control

The Buyer may at any time order an addition to, omission from, or other changes to the Deliverables, the date of delivery, the programme of execution of the Deliverables or the Agreement. Any associated changes in, or additions to the charges set out in the Agreement shall be valued on a fair and reasonable basis to be agreed by the Buyer and the Supplier.

24 Termination (in Dutch: opzegging)

- 24.1 The Buyer may terminate the Agreement forthwith on written notice if the Supplier is in breach of any of its terms and, in the event of a breach capable of being remedied, fails to remedy the breach within fourteen days (or such longer period as the Buyer may specify) of receipt of written request from the Buyer.
- 24.2 The Buyer may terminate the Agreement forthwith if there is a direct or indirect change of control of the Supplier or the whole or a substantial part of the business or assets of the Supplier are disposed of.
- 24.3 The Buyer may terminate this Agreement on giving the Supplier seven days written notice. In this event, the Buyer will pay the Supplier any costs necessarily and reasonably incurred by the Supplier in the performance of the Agreement up until the time of termination which it can not recover by other means, such as re-using or re-selling parts of the Deliverables, provided that the Supplier can demonstrate that it has used all reasonable endeavours to minimise these costs. The Buyer shall have no further liability to the Supplier and, without limitation of the foregoing, the Buyer will not be liable to the Supplier for any loss of revenue or loss of profits as a result of such termination.
- 24.4 Either party may terminate this Agreement if the other party ceases to trade or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due, makes an arrangement with its creditors or goes into administration, receivership, liquidation (other than as part of a solvent reorganisation), bankruptcy, judicial factory or any analogous insolvency proceedings in any jurisdiction.
- 24.5 The Supplier acknowledges that the provisions of section 48Z of the UK Banking Act 2009 shall apply to the Agreement.
- 24.6 Termination shall have no effect on the rights, liabilities and remedies of the parties which have arisen prior to termination. On termination each party shall return to the other all property and data of the other party which it holds.
- 24.7 In addition to any right to termination (in Dutch: opzeggen) of the Buyer under these terms and conditions, the Buyer has the right to dissolve the Agreement based on article 6:265 and subsequent articles of the Dutch Civil Code.

25 Force Majeure (in Dutch: Overmacht)

Notwithstanding anything else contained in the Agreement neither party shall be liable for any delay in performing its obligations if such delay is caused by exceptional circumstances beyond its reasonable control. In the event of either party becoming subject to such exceptional circumstances it shall promptly notify the other party and, where possible, promptly propose and, where agreed, implement a course of action to minimise the effect of such exceptional circumstances on the performance of the Agreement. However, such exceptional circumstances will only give the Supplier a right to relief in terms of this Clause where there is no failure by the Supplier to implement the business continuity and disaster recovery plan referred to in Clause 16.

If a party is delayed in performing its obligations under the Agreement because of circumstances beyond its reasonable control for more than 30 days, the other party may terminate (in Dutch: opzeggen) the Agreement immediately on written notice to the delaying party. The terminating party will not be liable to the other party for any costs, damages or expenses in connection with termination of the Agreement under this Clause. If the Buyer terminates the Agreement in accordance with this Clause, the Supplier shall immediately repay any monies already paid by the Buyer to the Supplier in connection with the Agreement or credit any unpaid invoice already sent to the Buyer in connection with the Agreement.

26 Legal and Regulatory Requirements and Standards

- 26.1 Where a change of law takes effect in the course of the Agreement, the Supplier will be solely responsible for meeting any additional costs involved in complying with the change of law in, or in relation to, the supply of the Deliverables.
- 26.2 The Supplier acknowledges that the Bank Group is subject to regulation by the FSA and other regulators in the countries in which the members of the Bank Group operate. The Supplier agrees that it will give the Bank Group all assistance that it reasonably requires to comply with these requirements in connection with the supply of the Deliverables.
- 26.3 The Supplier undertakes that while on Bank Group premises it will comply, and will ensure that its employees, agents and subcontractors comply, with all security and safety procedures which apply at the Bank Group premises from time to time and which have been notified to the Supplier or its employees, agents and subcontractors.
- 26.4 In the event of any breach of such security or safety procedures by the Supplier or its employees, agents or subcontractors the Buyer may:-
- 26.4.1 require the Supplier to immediately remove from the delivery or performance of the Deliverables any of its employees, agents and subcontractors who have breached such procedures (without affecting the Supplier's obligations to deliver or perform the Deliverables in accordance with the Agreement), and/or
- 26.4.2 terminate (in Dutch: opzeggen) the Agreement forthwith.
- 26.5 The Supplier undertakes to the Buyer that the Deliverables will be delivered or performed in accordance with (a) all laws, regulatory requirements, regulations, bye-laws, codes of practice, Territory-specific standards and EU or international standards from time to time applicable to the delivery or performance of the Deliverables, and (b) all policies and working procedures of the Bank Group made known by the Buyer to the Supplier (including the RBS Sustainable Procurement Code for Suppliers set out on the RBS website at www.rbs.com) and any Bank Group Pre-employment Screening requirements made known by the Buyer to the Supplier.
- 26.7 The Supplier shall promptly notify the Bank if the Supplier becomes, or is likely to become, a Relevant Financial Institution during the term of this Agreement.

27 General Conditions

- 27.1 The Supplier shall not assign, transfer or sub-contract the Agreement or any of its rights and obligations under it whether in whole or in part without the prior written consent of the Buyer. Where the Buyer consents to subcontracting the Supplier shall remain responsible for performance of the Agreement as if it had not sub-contracted and shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of its sub-contractors. The Buyer may assign or transfer the Agreement without consent.
- 27.2 No delay, neglect or forbearance on the part of either party in enforcing against the other party any term or condition of the Agreement shall either be or be deemed to be a waiver or in any way prejudice any right of that party under or in connection with the Agreement.
- 27.3 No waiver or alteration of the Agreement will be binding or effective unless in writing and signed by the duly authorised representatives of both the Supplier and the Buyer.
- 27.4 If any provision of the Agreement is determined to be unlawful and can be deleted without altering the essence of the Agreement, the unlawful provision will be severed and the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.
- 27.5 The Supplier shall not, without the prior written consent of the Buyer, advertise or publicly announce that it is providing goods, software, data or services to the Bank Group.
- 27.6 The parties are independent contracting parties. Nothing in the Agreement shall be construed as creating a partnership, agency or joint venture between the parties. Neither party shall hold itself out as being entitled to bind the other party in any way or to make any representation on behalf of the other party.

- 27.7 Any provision of the Agreement which is, expressly or by implication, intended to survive termination or completion of the Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.
- 27.8 The applicability of the Convention on contracts for the International Sale of Goods 1980 (CISG) is expressly excluded.
- 27.9 Unless expressly stated otherwise, the Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings between the parties regarding its subject matter and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties relating to its subject matter. The Agreement does not supersede any separate obligations of confidentiality between the parties unless the contrary is expressly stated elsewhere in the Agreement.
- 27.10 No provision of the Agreement shall prejudice any condition or warranty, express or implied, or any legal remedy in relation to the Deliverables by virtue of any statute or custom or any general law or local law or regulation.

28 Governing Law & Dispute Resolution

The Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Netherlands. The competent courts of the Netherlands will have authority to settle any dispute in relation to it. The Buyer will be free to take action against the Supplier in the courts of that country or in the courts of any other country which has authority to settle any dispute. The Supplier will only take court action against the Buyer in the courts of the Netherlands. If any dispute arises between the parties relating to the Agreement the parties will first attempt for a reasonable period to resolve it amicably and may by agreement refer the dispute to mediation or to an expert or arbiter to determine.

29 Order of Precedence

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between them, the following parts of the Agreement shall take precedence in the following order:-

- 29.1 the Purchase Order,
- 29.2 the Special Terms, then
- 29.3 the Specification.
